

GREENER STILL CUSTOMER REFERRAL PROGRAM

Our customer referral program rewards you for sharing the products and services you love with your family and friends. This program includes all of the income streams nestled under the parent company of Greener Still. These companies include:

- Blue 42 for Life
- Prompting U
- SendOutCards
- Bella Cadeaux
- Stream Marketing
- Stream Virtual Assistant (VA)

By sharing products and services from each of these companies, you can earn referral credits toward your own purchases from any of the Greener Still companies.

Share and be rewarded now!

How do I earn free products?

Each of the products and services in the Greener Still companies has a point value attached. When you refer family and friends who purchase products and services from the Greener Still companies, you accumulate points. Every time you accumulate 15 points from the people you personally refer, you earn a $50 credit towards future purchases or monthly subscriptions from any of the Greener Still companies.

How many $50 credits can I earn?

Great news! You are not limited in the number of credits you can earn from the people you personally refer to the Greener Still companies.

How do I enroll my family and friends as customers of the Greener Still companies so I can receive points for their purchases?

To enroll people under you, you simply share your unique referral link with them. This is in your dashboard when you are logged into your customer account. The link in your dashboard is specifically for you. You can refer people to any of the Greener Still companies. Referral links can be sent via text, email, and social media channels. Once they have become a customer of one of the Greener Still companies, just like you, they will have their own username and password on all of the Greener Still companies and you will get credit for their purchases!

Where can I see my award credits?

You can find your credits by logging into your customer account and visiting your dashboard.

How do I use my credits?

At check out at any of the Greener Still company websites, you will be asked if you would like to apply the credit to your current order. Any amount of the credit remaining after the purchase will carry over to be used on a future purchase or subscription.