

Greener Still FAQs

Is Greener Still now taking the place of SendOutCards?

SendOutCards remains its own entity and is now part of the Greener Still product line.

Who is Greener Still owned and operated by?

Greener Still is owned and founded by Kody and Jodi Bateman. Gregg Bryars is the CEO and the company structure that previously managed SendOutCards continues as the driving team behind Greener Still.

What business streams are included in the Greener Still compensation plan?

Greener Still offers six business streams of products and Greener Still Affiliates can earn compensation as they grow their teams and bring more customers and Affiliate onboard. They are the following businesses:

- Blue42 For Life – our health and wellness stream
- Prompting U – our personal development and education stream
- SendOutCards – our premier relationship development stream
- Bella Cadeaux – our luxury gifting stream
- Stream VA – our virtual assistant service
- Stream Marketing – our online marketing service

What if I want to be a Greener Still Affiliate but only want to utilize a few of the streams?

Great! Once you become a Greener Still Affiliate, you are only required to pay the $14/per month Affiliate fee which gives you access to all six business streams. Which business stream you decide to promote is up to you! You are free to utilize ALL of the streams or just a few, it's your business, so your choice.

What is the Customer Referral Program?

Our customer referral program rewards customers for sharing the products and services they love with their family and friends. Each of the products and services in the Greener Still companies has a point value attached. When customers refer family and friends who then purchase products and services from the Greener Still companies, the customer accumulates points. Every time a customer accumulates 15 points from the people they personally refer, they earn a $50 credit towards future purchases or monthly subscriptions from any of the Greener Still companies.

What are the fees associated with becoming a Greener Still Affiliate?

There is a $14/per month Affiliate fee which provides the following:

- The opportunity to earn revenue from all six streams
- Six replicated website/e-commerce stores representing each stream
- Your own business opportunity website
- Access to the GS Pro App, a mobile and desktop application that helps you share our products and presentations through email, text, and social media; track your contacts; send out newsletters, help you learn our system and duplication plan; and help you build your business through gamification.

Do I use the same login for ALL streams?

Yes. Each Greener Still stream uses the same login credentials for account access. If you already have a SendOutCards account, you can log in to any of the other business streams using those credentials.

How do I log into the different streams?

There are two ways you will be able to log into each stream:

1. Each stream will have a web page that you can go to log in to.
2. Your account page (accessible from any stream) will have links to all other streams.

Does each stream require a monthly subscription?

No! You only have to pay one $14/per month fee to benefit as an Affiliate from all streams. Each of the streams has products and/or monthly subscriptions available for the different products and services offered.

Does an Affiliate need to be using a stream to be able to sell it?

No. You have one login to access all of the streams, but you don't have to be using them or subscribed to them in any way.
